Natasha Jacobs is a successful young woman who works for one of Atlanta's most successful marketing firms, Emerson & Stuckey. Sloan Stevens is an ambitious young man working his way up the corporate ladder at Emerson & Stuckey. Sloan and Natasha have been best friends since third grade, and their families and friends suspect that they harbor feelings for each other that run deeper than friendship. But Natasha and Sloan are determined to prove their friends wrong and to find true love after leaving a string of unsuccessful relationships in their wake. Opportunity presents itself in the form of two new coworkers, Essence Kirkland and Derrick Perkins. But when Essence and Derrick turn up the heat, things threaten to boil over and turn friends into enemies. Will this be a recipe for true love between friends or a poisoned dish that will cost one friend their very life?
